

Citations for Form HUD 27300 (Questionnaire for HUD's Initiative on Removal of Regulatory Barriers)

For Questions #3, 4, 10, 14, 18, 19, 20 which relate to zoning, please use the following citation: chapter 295 of Milwaukee Code of Ordinances. Milwaukee's Code of Ordinances can be found on the internet at: <http://www.city.milwaukee.gov/display/router.asp?docid=1179>

Comprehensive plan questions (Questions 1, 2, 3) The citation is the City of Milwaukee Comprehensive Plan. (For more information about Questions 1 and 2, contact plans@mkedcd.org; for Question 3, contact planadmin@mkedcd.org.)

Building code questions should refer to the following citation: Chapters 200-290 of Milwaukee Code of Ordinances (<http://www.city.milwaukee.gov/display/router.asp?docid=1179> ).

Question #5, 6, 7: Milwaukee does not have impact fees. See section 200-33 of Milwaukee Code of Ordinances (<http://www.city.milwaukee.gov/display/router.asp?docid=1179> ), which specifies all development permitting fees.

Question #9: Milwaukee uses the International Building Code 2000 as amended by Wisconsin State Statute and adopted in section 200-06, Milwaukee Code of Ordinances (<http://www.city.milwaukee.gov/display/router.asp?docid=1179> ).

Question #15: The Department of City Development created the Milwaukee Development Center in 1999 to consolidate all permit applications. There's no ordinance that established it, just the City budget.

Question #19: The zoning ordinance does adjust parking requirements for public housing, but not for ALL affordable housing developments.